Cornell Notes

Cornell Notes
Date—
Class—US History	Revolutionary War
Southern Battles	Howe resigns/Sir Henry Clinton=orders troops from Philly to NYC
Battle of Monmouth	GW sends his troops to intercept British/ largest Battle in the war=no victory but Continental army stand against the British for the first time/ Clinton moves south
Savannah, Charlestown	Decisive British Victories/South still very loyal, Clinton heads back to NYC=George Cornwallis in charge
Battle of Kings Mountain	Banastre Tarleton and Patrick Ferguson=brutality
	Oct. 1780 turning pt. in war in south
Nathaniel Greene/Francis Marion	Greene Gen in charge, army wear down British+militia destroy their supplies/ Marion=Swamp Fox best of militia
The Battle of Yorktown	Cornwallis to Virginia/ meets up with Benedict Arnold??
	General Anthony Wayne surrounds Cornwallis/ GW gets word cancels attack on NYC, French naval commander de Grasse on its way from Caribbean
	DeGrasse—cuts British off by sea, Washington joins Wayne Oct. 19, 1781 Cornwallis surrenders
Treaty of Paris 1783	John Jay, Ben Franklin and John Adams—Sep.3 1783
	British recognize Miss. R. as Western border, give Florida back to Spain, France gets colonies in Africa and the Caribbean
	Nov 24, 1783 last British troops leave NYC

Summary		