Cornell Notes
Date—
Class—US History	Dred Scott/Republicans/John Brown's Raid
Republicans (1854)	Keep slavery out of the new lands Northern Whigs + Free soilers + Anti-slavery Democrats
The Know-Nothings	American Party=Anti catholic and nativist Party split over slavery=northern Know Nothings go Rep.
Election of 1856	R=John C. Fremont (Pathfinder) D=James Buchanan A=Millard Fillmore Freemont v. Buchanan in north Buchanan v. Fillmore in S.
	Treemont v. Buchanan in north Buchanan v. Frinnore in S.
Dred Scott decision	Let Supreme Court decide the issue of slavery
	Roger Taney=No citizen and MO compromise is unconst.
	R=What?? Free soil is unconstitutional D=Justice
Lincoln v. Douglas	Douglas a rising star in Democratic party but loses some southern support during Lecompton Constitution1858 Illinois Senate election Douglas v. Lincoln
	Lincoln "A house divided" speech (pp.299)
	"Can the people of a territory legally exclude slavery before achieving statehood." Douglas's Freeport Doctrine—"I accept Dred Scott but people could still keep slavery out by refusing to pass the laws needed to regulate and enforce it. Lincoln not an abolitionist—(pp.300)
John Brown's Raid (Oct. 16, 1859)	Harpers Ferry, VaOver in 36 hours—Turning point for the south—Robert E. Lee stops raid??? "Defend yourselves, the enemy is at your door!"

Summary	